Intensive, experiential courses in business, public affairs, and public policy
Washington, D.C.
The Washington Campus is a non-profit, non-partisan, higher education consortium based in Washington, D.C. Students from consortium member schools (see reverse) can enroll in The Washington Campus’ certificate graduate courses throughout the year and receive academic credits from their home institutions. Students from accredited non-consortium schools also are welcome to participate, but should check with their home institutions before registering in order to receive academic credits.

Technology, corporate strategy, and public policy:
Discussion with Astri Kimball Van Dyke,
Senior Policy Counsel, Google

Discussing trade, tax, and immigration policy:
With Senator Todd Young

Strategic management of global public affairs:
Discussion with Jessica Zielke, Director,
Federal & Diplomatic Government Relations, The Coca-Cola Company

By far one of the best experiences I’ve had throughout my MBA program.

This course should be required for all MBAs.
